Kids Work

A lovely poetic piece of writing from Narnia Williams...

It was Saturday.

The sun was shining bright upon the hills

*As we raced out of the car
towards the crashing waves.
We dipped our feet
in the ice cold water.*

*As the sand squished between my feet
like melted ice cream.*

*We slid down the sand dunes
as a light breeze blew past.*

*Laughing and running
up the sand dunes
seeing the world
taking photos*

*The dogs playing chasing after us
Playing fetch and running
up the sand dunes*
